WELCOME!

Now begins your learning adventure into the world of reading through the world of art. Add silver glitter to make Percival sparkle.

INSTRUCTIONS

This year, one of the things we will be learning is how to write our letters. With a pencil follow the maze shapes below.

INSTRUCTIONS

Color the apples red that have an A on them. Look carefully! The letter A is playing dress-up and has put on several disguises.

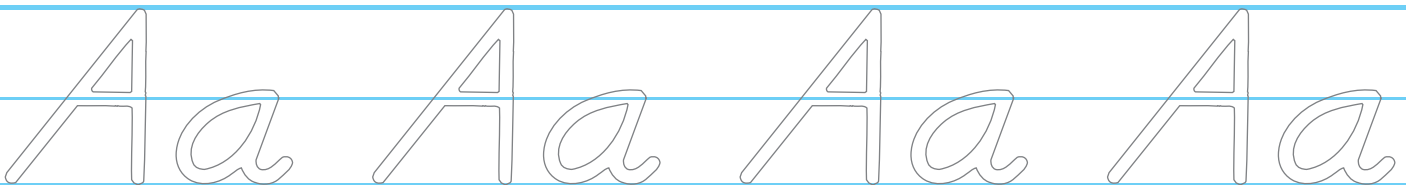

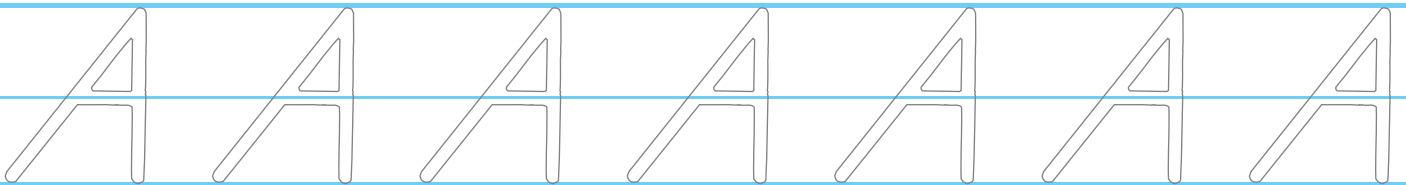

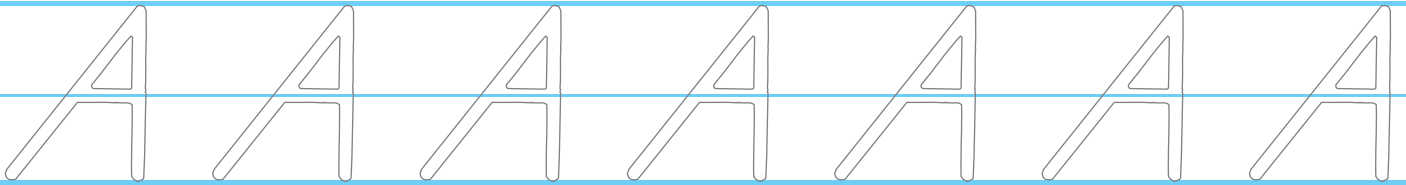

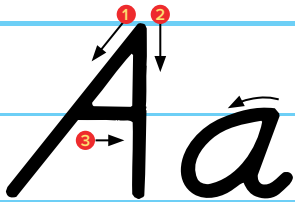

2b

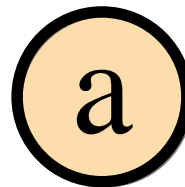

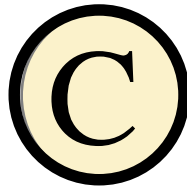

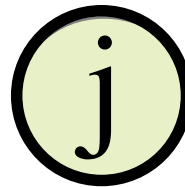

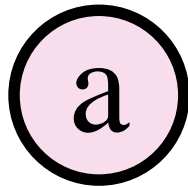

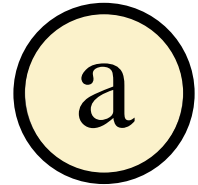

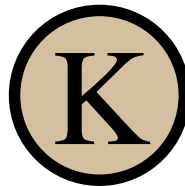

INSTRUCTIONS

Practice making the shapes of upper and lower case A by drawing within the letter outlines.

INSTRUCTIONS

Draw a line from Mr. Alligator's mouth to those circles which have either the upper or lower case letter A on them.

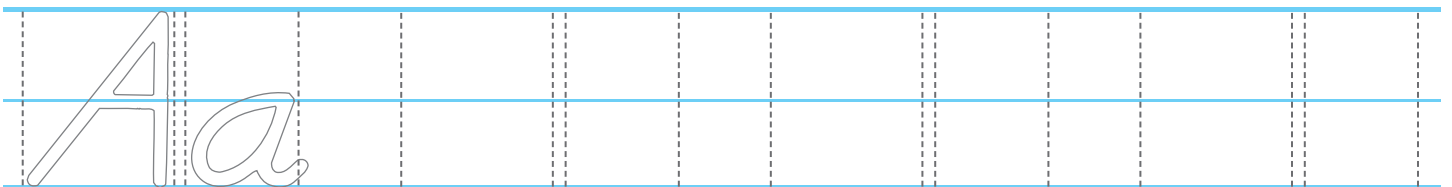

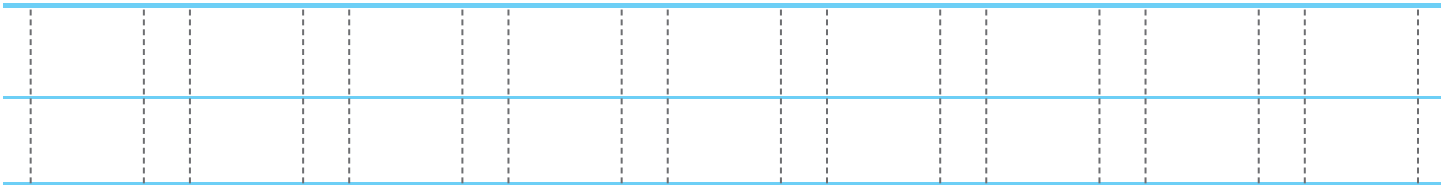

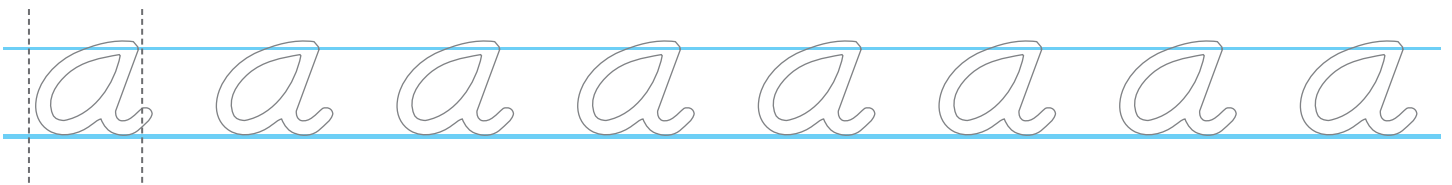

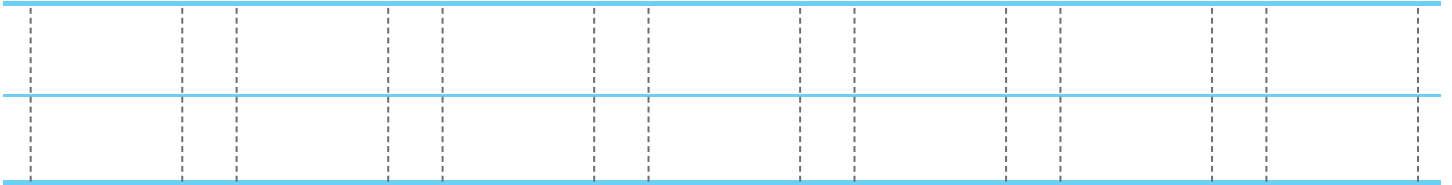

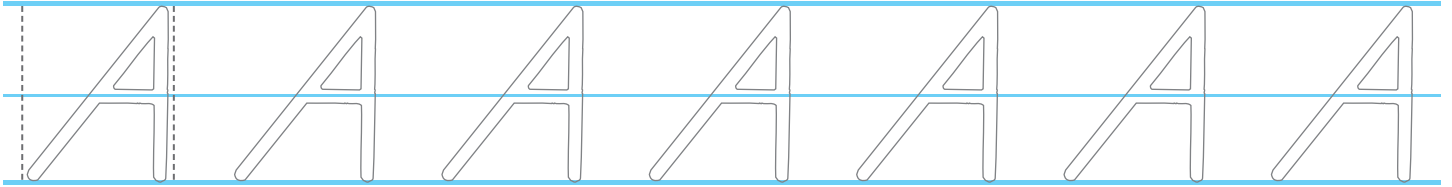

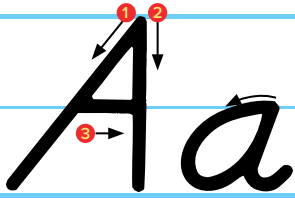

3b

INSTRUCTIONS

Practice making the shapes of upper and lower case A by first drawing within the letter outlines then creating the letter shapes on your own inside the dashed lines.

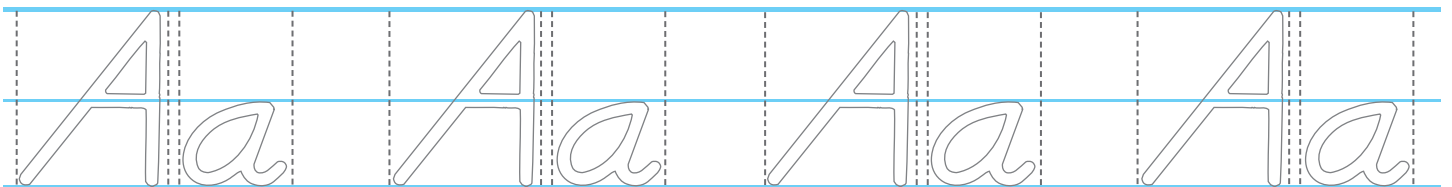

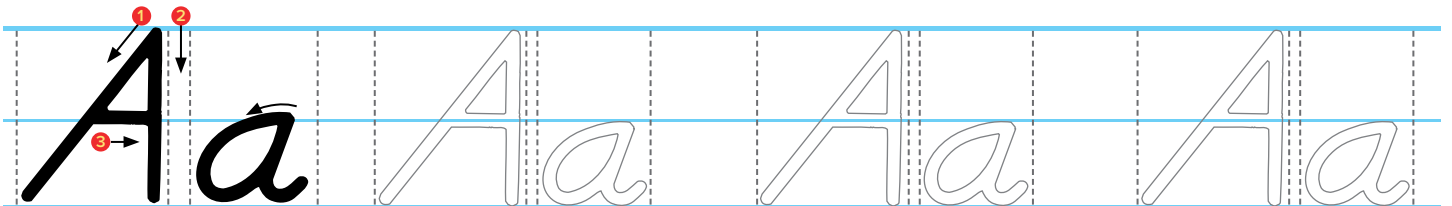

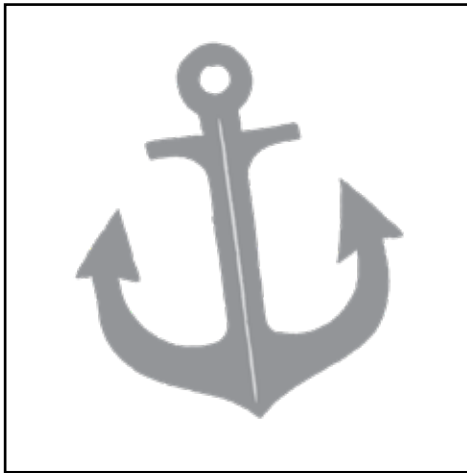

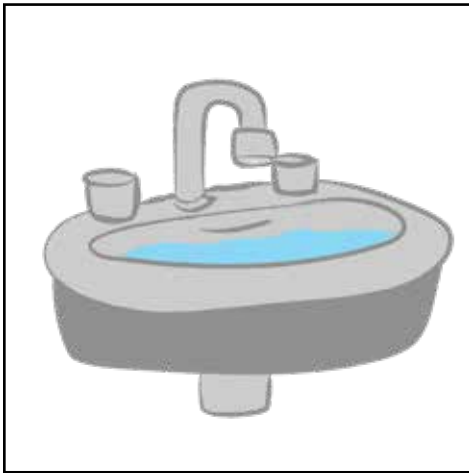

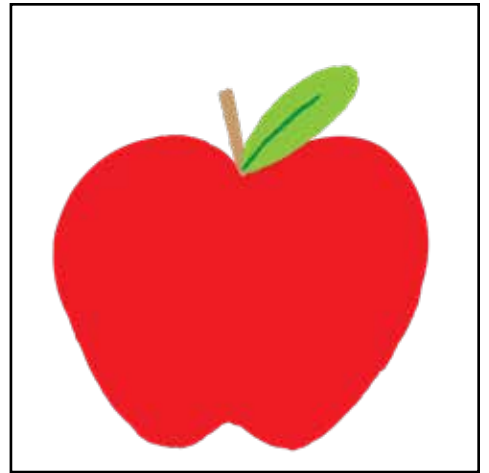

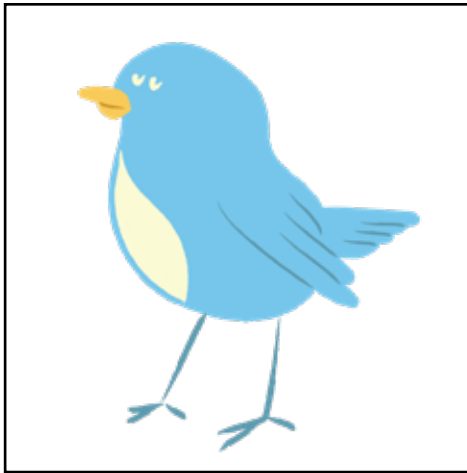

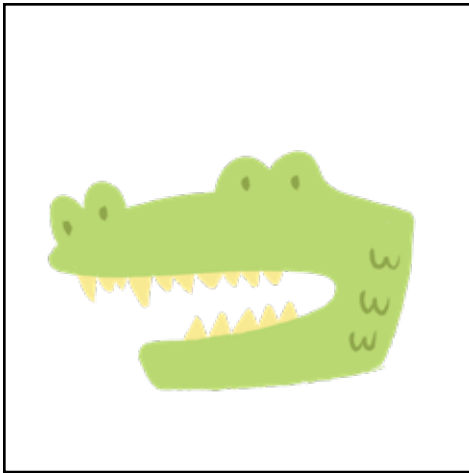

4a

INSTRUCTIONS

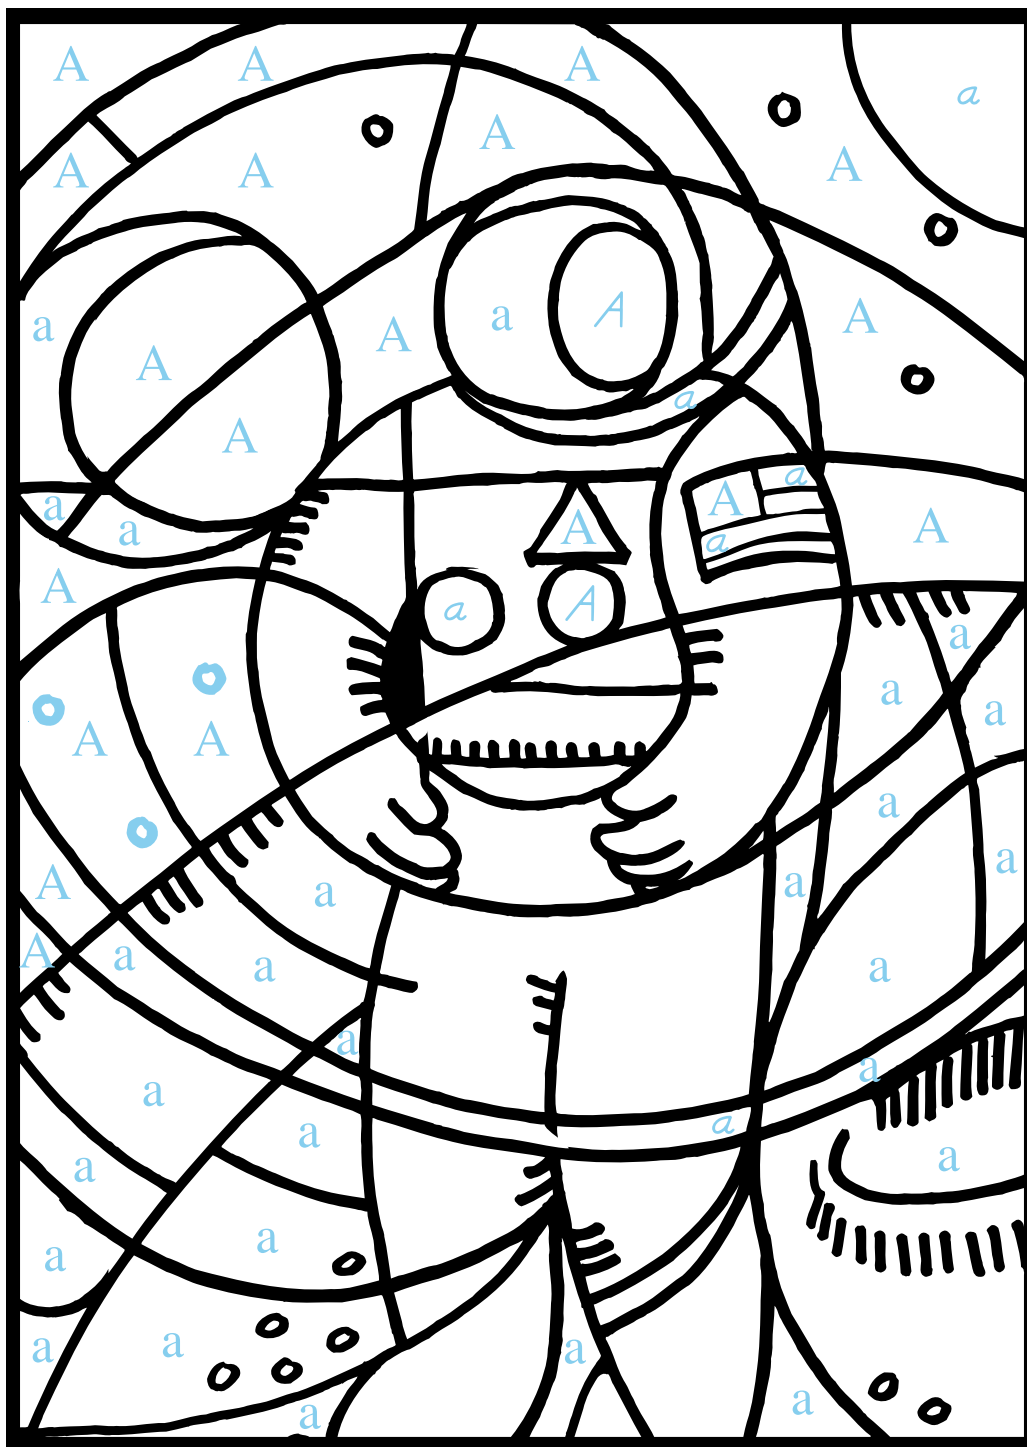

Color the squares red that have pictures that begin with the sound of the letter A. Then practice making the letter A on the lines provided below.

INSTRUCTIONS

Color the shapes following the guide at the bottom.

A = dark blue a = yellow A = purple a = red

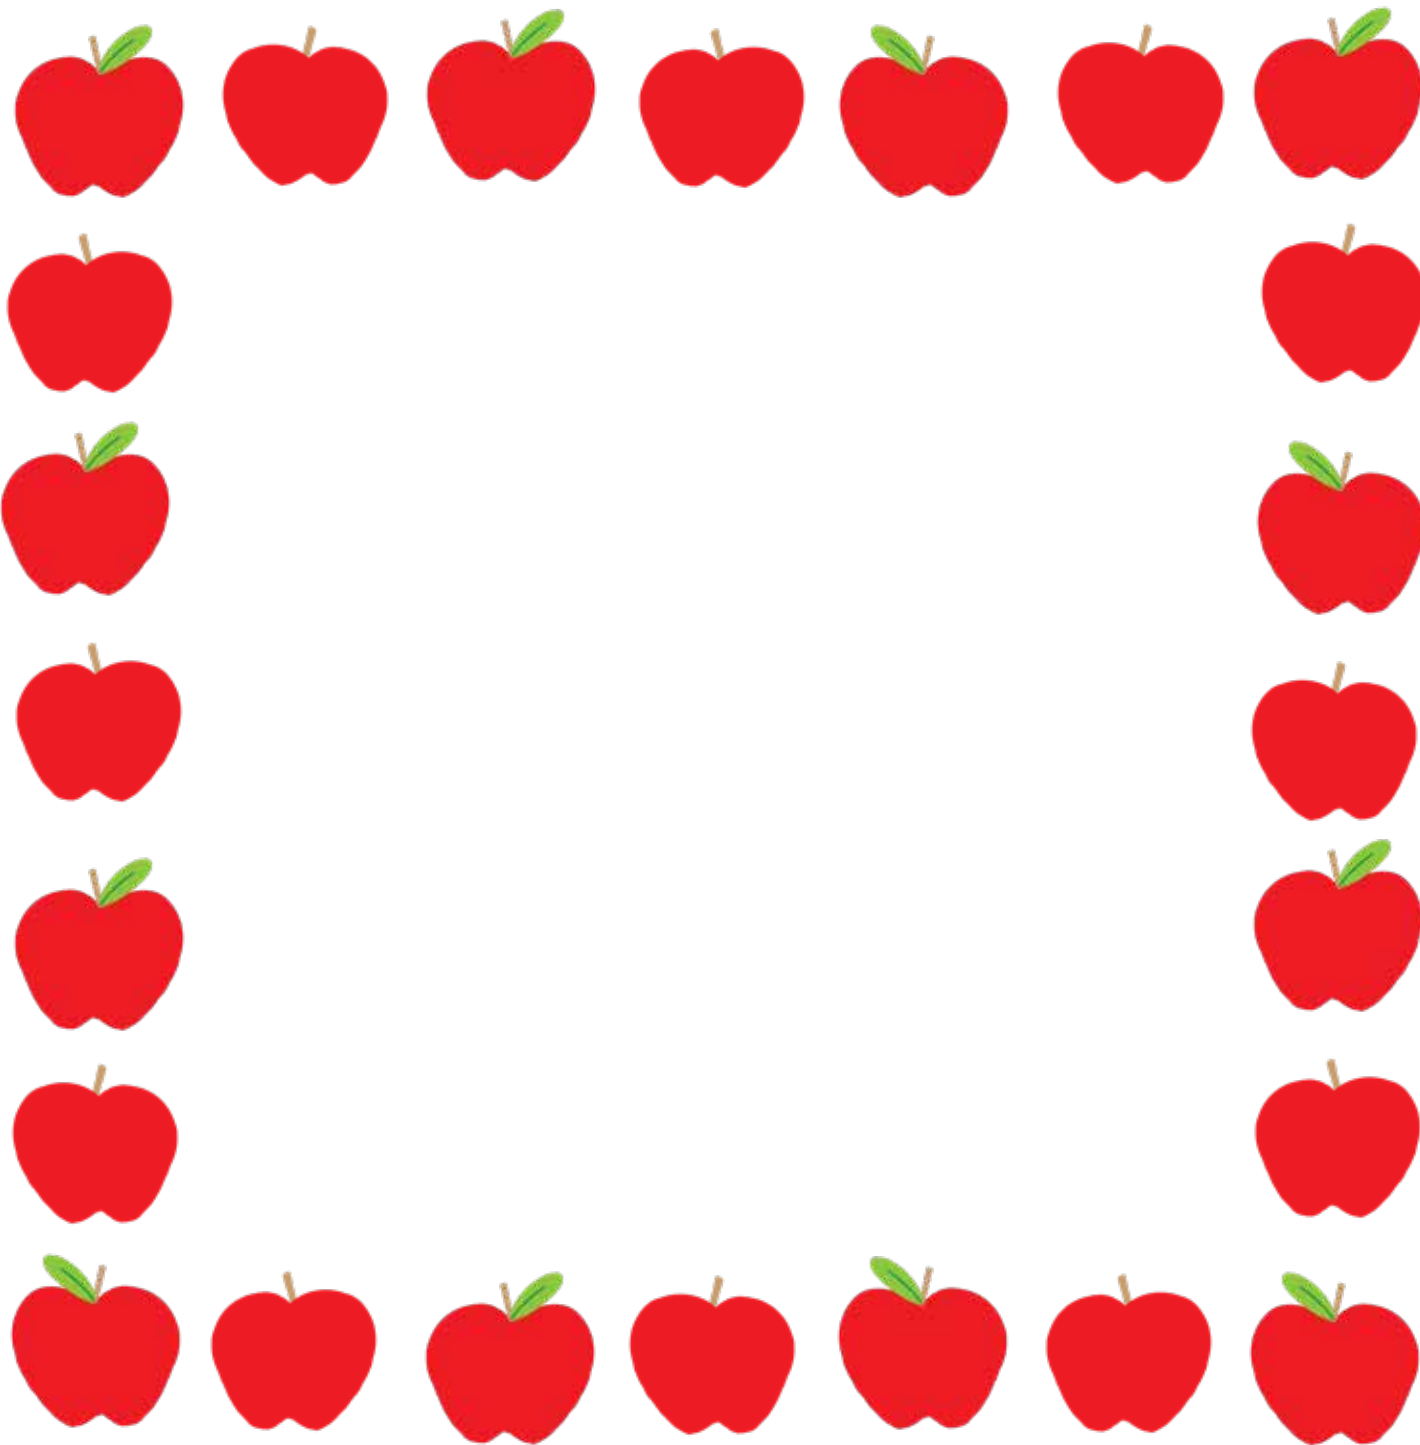

Aa

INSTRUCTIONS:

Cut a small apple in half lengthwise.
Dip the cut surface of the apple into the paint and then press it against the paper.
Set the prints aside to dry.

SUPPLIES: Apples (Red Delicious apples work best due to their distinct apple shape), assorted washable paints on paper plates, and damp paper towels.

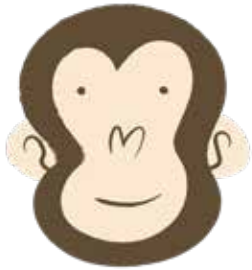

Aa

INSTRUCTIONS

Fill in the letter maze at the beginning of each row. Then circle each picture that begins with the A sound as you hear the names of the pictures read.
