Parents & Teachers:

This book was intended as a learning-aid to students studying Latin from the Latin For Children: Primer B text-book. It follows that text-book chapter for chapter. Thus, the vocabulary words learned on chapter seven of the text-book correlate to those in chapter seven of this activity book.

Not all puzzles will appeal to all students. Feel free to have students jump around or even skip puzzles. Our goal is not to stump the students with “impossible” puzzles, rather, with a reasonable sense of challenge, have students continue practicing their Latin in a setting that is fun, playful and full of games.

Ideas:

Use highlighters for the word search puzzles. This should help minimize the muddle of circles.

Use colored pencils on the matching games to delineate one line from another.

Encourage students to work together (when available) on the more challenging puzzles.

Have students create their own puzzles and games to share with others!

The logo for 'Retro Specto' is centered within a white, tilted rectangular frame with a black border. The word 'RETRO' is in a simple, uppercase, sans-serif font. The 'S' is a large, stylized, grey spiral. 'PECTO' is in the same simple, uppercase, sans-serif font as 'RETRO'. A small 'TM' trademark symbol is positioned to the upper right of the 'O' in 'PECTO'.

LFC SCREWY tales

You've seen these before haven't you? They're crazy! They're fun! They're crazy fun! Here's how it works in case you don't know:

You can play this game alone, or better yet, with a friend who is learning Latin as well. Go through the story picking words from the list of Latin nouns, verbs & adjectives from the list provided (or from your own memory of LFC Primer A and/or LFC Primer B). Only when you're done filling in all the spaces with the English translations, go back and read your story out loud from the beginning. Use pencil and try it again with all new words if you want. Enjoy!

Oh... and don't forget to laugh!

The Princess and the Pea

Once upon a time, amidst a terrible and _____ night, a lone girl, dripping _____ & _____ s, straggled up to the castle door and _____ loudly. The Prince answered the door. He wasn't sure he should let the _____ girl inside, but she claimed to be a _____. Wanting to test her, the prince put a _____ little pea under 40 mattresses. The lone girl tried to _____ all night but simply couldn't. The next morning, the Prince asked the lone girl how she _____. "Terribly!" she said. "It felt like I was sleeping on a _____
 _____ all night long!" The End.
